St. James's, April 9. 1716.

THE following Addreſs has been preſented to His Majeſty by Mr. John Stirling Principal of the Univerſity of Glaſgow, introduced by His Grace the Duke of Montroſe, Chancellour of that Univerſity; and the ſaid Mr. Stirling had the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The Humble Addreſs of the Chancellour, Rector, Vice-Chancellour and Principal, Dean of Faculty, and Profeſſors of the Univerſity of Glaſgow.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE are ſo ſenſible of the Divine Goodneſs in delivering theſe Nations from the Ruine that threatned all that could be dear to them, by ſetting Your Majeſty on the Throne of Your Anceſtors, and of the invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy under Your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, that we cannot but expreſs our utmoſt Abhorrence of a Rebellion againſt ſo good and gracious a Soveraign, avowedly deſigned to impoſe on theſe Realms a Pretender to Your Majeſty's Crown, trained up in all the Principles of Popery and Tyranny, to the utter Subverſion of our Religion and Liberty, and manifeſt Danger of the whole Proteſtant Intereſt.

It is not ſurprizing, that the Pretender, managed by Popiſh Enemies Abroad, and prompted by deſperate and attainted Fugitives, ſhould have dared to invade Your Majeſty's Dominions, or that thoſe who are acted by a blind Zeal for Romiſh Superſtition and Idolatry, ſhould have kindled the Flame of this Rebellion; but that any who call themſelves Proteſtants ſhould have encouraged this open and flagrant Attempt in favour of Popery; and, without the leaſt Provocation, fomented ſo traiterous an Enterprize againſt a Prince of known Zeal for our Religion and Liberty, who expreſſeth the moſt endearing Tenderneſs and Clemency towards all His Subjects, is moſt aſtoniſhing, and muſt needs be a laſting Reproach upon them; and can be no otherways accounted for, than as the natural Effect of theſe abſurd and pernicious Doctrines, which have been of late ſo induſtriouſly taught and propagated by ſome, who, while they pretend to engroſs Loyalty to themſelves, do, nevertheleſs, what lies in their Power to excite a Spirit of Sedition and Rebellion in all who are under their Influence.

With the greateſt Pleaſure we have obſerved the Divine Providence declaring againſt this deſperate Undertaking, confounding all the Deſigns and Meaſures of the Rebels, defeating them both in Scotland and England, till at length the Terrour of Your Majeſty's Arms has put them to a precipitant Flight, and driven the Pretender out of Scotland, without daring to make the leaſt Reſiſtance; ſo that he and his Friends have the Mortification to ſee the Weakneſs of his Party, and how inſignificant his Preſence hath been, either to animate them, or to increaſe their Number. In all this, as we admire and adore the wonderful Mercy of God, who giveth Salvation to Kings, and with Hearts full of Joy preſume to congratulate Your Majeſty upon ſo remarkable a Series of Succeſs, ſo we moſt humbly acknowledge Your Majeſty's great Goodneſs in having the Dangers to which the Nation was expoſed ſo much at Heart, that neither the extraordinary Rigour of the Seaſon, nor any fallacious Propoſal of the Rebels, could divert Your Majeſty from uſing all poſſible Endeavours towards putting a ſpeedy and effectual End to this unnatural Rebellion.

On this Occaſion, Great Sir, we beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, that as our Buſineſs hath been, ſo it ever ſhall be, to inſtill into the Minds of the Youth committed to our Care, ſuch Principles as, next to their Duty to Him by whom Kings Reign, ſhall engage them to a firm Allegiance to Your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government, and a ſteady Adherence to the Succeſſion in Your Royal Family: And we ſhall never be wanting, by all Means proper for us, to the utmoſt of our Power to aſſert and defend Your Majeſty's juſt and undoubted Title to the Crown, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion by Law eſtabliſhed, in Oppoſition to the Pretender, and all others who ſhall preſume to diſpute Your Right, or diſturb Your Majeſty's peaceable Poſſeſſion of it.

That all Attempts againſt Your Royal Perſon and Government may end in the firmer Eſtabliſhment of Your Throne, and produce in all Your Subjects a deeper Senſe of the Happineſs of being under Your Majeſty's wiſe and benign Adminiſtration; that the Almighty and only Wiſe God may confound and defeat all the Deſigns of Your Enemies at Home and Abroad; direct You to ſuch Meaſures as the future Happineſs and Tranquility of Your Subjects may be eſtabliſhed on a ſolid Foundation; preſerve Your Majeſty to be the Father of Your People, a Bleſſing to all the Churches of Chriſt, and the Great Patron of Learning; and that the Crown may long flouriſh on Your Sacred Head, and afterwards be tranſmitted to Your Royal Progeny, even to lateſt Poſterity, ſhall be the moſt hearty and fervent Prayer of,

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

Glaſgow, Feb. 27. 1716.

Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful, moſt Loyal, and moſt Obedient Subjects.

The following Addreſſes have alſo been preſented to His Majeſty.

An humble Addreſs of the High-Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen, at the Aſſizes held for the County of Devon on the 26th of March 1716. Preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend, One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

An humble Addreſs of the High-Sheriff, Deputy-Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and other Gentlemen, at the Aſſizes held at Chard for the County of Somerſet, on the 2d of April 1716. Preſented to His Majeſty by the Honourable George Dodington, Eſq; His Majeſty's Lieutenant of the ſaid County, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend, One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

An humble Addreſs of the Council and Repreſentatives of New-Hampſhire in New-England, having been tranſmitted hither, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Collonel Burgeſs, introduced by the Right Honourable James Stanhope, Eſq; One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

All which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Madrid,

Madrid, March 30. N. S. On the 26th Instant in the Morning their Majesties went from the Escurial, and arrived the same Evening at Segovia, where they design to take the Diversion of Hunting, and to return in a few Days hither. The cold Weather and the Snow incommoded the Court very much in their Journey to Segovia. Orders have been given to the Commissary General of the Cruzada to equip the 6 Galleys which are at Cartagena, that they may be in a Readiness to sail to Italy. 'Tis understood that they are intended to be sent to the Pope in order to be made use of against the Turks; and the said Commissary, notwithstanding his Representations to the contrary, has had repeated Commands to hasten the Equipment as much as possible. The Bishop of Oviedo, who is accused of being a Follower of the Doctrine of Molinos, and has on that Account been a Prisoner in the Inquisition for these six Years, is now sent for to Rome to have the Cause determined there, and an Inquisitor is ordered to go along with him. Advices from Cadiz tell us that the Marquis of Valero, Viceroy of New-Spain, sailed from thence the 18th Instant; four Ships went with him, two whereof are to go to Vera Cruz, and two to the Havana, to take on board the Treasure which has been recovered from the Flota that was lately lost in those Parts. The Council of the Indies having dispatched these Ships, have now represented to the King the Necessity of sending to Buenos Ayres the Soldiers, and other Military Provisions some While since designed for that Garrison; but this Business will require Time for its Expedition. We hear from Barcelona that a Regiment of Walloons has been added to that Garrison, to help the carrying on the Works on those Fortifications.

Dublin, March 29. This Day the Parliament of this Kingdom met, pursuant to the Order of Adjournment of the 8th Instant, and adjourned again to the 3d of May next.

From the Camp at Blair of Athol, March 30. On the 27th Lieutenant General Cadogan arrived here with some of His Majesty's Troops, and was Yesterday joyned by Major-General Montese with the rest of the Detachments which were expected. Since our Arrival, all the Rebels in these Parts, and in the Brays of Angus and Mar, who had not delivered up their Arms, have brought them in, and surrendred at Discretion. We have Advice from Collonel Clayton, who was detached with a Party into the Laird of Appin's Country, that the said Appin's Men and those of Glenco had given up their Arms, and submitted likewise at Discretion. Those of Badenoch, whither a Detachment was also sent, have done the same; so that all the Rebels between the Tay and the Spey, are now disarmed. The King's Troops have paid during the whole March for every thing that was furnished to them, and such exact Discipline has been observed, that there has not been the least Complaint.

Custom-House, London, April 9. 1716.

The Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs having received an Anonimous Letter by the Penny-Post, without Date, marked Q. Y. giving an Account of a Fraud intended to be put in Practice, to the Prejudice of the said Revenue, and the fair Traders; Do hereby give Notice, if the said Person who wrote the said Letter, will discover who have concerted the said Fraud, so as the same may be prevented or detected, he shall receive all fitting Encouragement.

Victualling-Office, April 6. 1716.

Whereas a Letter dated the 28th of March last, signed S. W. was sent by the Penny-Post to Denzill Onslow, Esq; One of the Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy; the said Commissioners do hereby give Notice, That if the Person who sent the said Letter will come to their Office, and make out what he therein alledges, he shall receive all fitting Encouragement.

Wine-Licence Office, April 7. 1716.

All Persons owing Arrears of Rent for Wine-Licences, or whose Licences are expired, are hereby required to take Notice, That if they do not pay their said Arrears, and renew their said Licences with all Speed, they will forthwith be prosecuted for the same. And whereas His Majesty's Commissioners for managing the said Revenue, have received certain Information of divers Persons presuming to Retail Wine without Licences, and to whom Letters have been sent advertizing them of the Penalties incurred thereby: These are also to give Notice, that unless such Persons do forthwith apply themselves to the said Commissioners, the Laws in such Cases made and provided will be forthwith put in Execution.

The Court of Directors of the Bank of England give Notice, That a General Court will be held at Grocers-Hall, on Thursday next, the 12th Instant, from Nine in the Forenoon to Six in the Evening, for Election of a Governour and Deputy-Governour for the Year ensuing; which Election will be declared that Evening. And the said Court will be continued by Adjournment, and held at the same Place, and during the same Hours, on Friday next the 13th Instant, for the Choice of Twenty-Four Directors, (which will be also one of the Quarterly General Courts appointed by the Charter.) And the Election of the Twenty Four Directors will be declared as soon as the Scrutiny is over.
